

NON-PECUNIARY DONATION POLICY

About Us:

We are a multidisciplinary charitable non-profit organization empowering and impacting unprivileged lives vide our thematic verticals aligned to the United Nations SDG/s 1 to 5, 8 & 17.

1. Purpose of the Policy:

This policy outlines several guidelines for donors preferring In-Kind Donations (Non-Monetary) to the unprivileged beneficiaries of our organization which particularly are preowned / preloved / second-hand in nature and consists of Apparels, Clothing, Bed Lines, Mattresses, toys, education requisites, books, digital learning requisites, vehicles, household items, fashion items, basic items, furniture etc...

2: Preowned Apparels:

- ❖ Identify the fact that your donations will be utilised by another human being just like you but lesser privilege than you due to circumstances.
- ❖ A quick rule of thumb for clothing donations: If an item is in good condition (no stains, holes, or tears) and is clean, it's probably perfect for clothing donation.
- ❖ Consider donating clothes you simply don't wear anymore
- ❖ Too small or tight? It's time to pass it down to someone else.
- ❖ Don't be afraid to include high-end items like a suit or formal dress. it may be for special programs that help people in need look sharp for a job interview or for events .
- ❖ Make sure all apparels you wished to donate have been recently washed/dry cleaned
- ❖ Fold each apparel neatly before donation

3: Preowned Apparels NOT ACCEPTABLE:

- ❖ No undergarments. No, if's, and's, or but's about it. Undies are items that need to be bought new, no matter how cute your old ones are.
- ❖ Does your old favorite shirt have a hole in it? Then it's time to repurpose, recycle, or throw it away. Only consider donating items that are like new or gently worn.
- ❖ Do your shorts still have a weird smell? That's a no for us
- ❖ If any of your clothes have spots or stains on them, try to remove them yourself or take it to a professional. If the stain won't budge, then sadly the item should not be donated and instead repurposed.

4: Preowned Toys

- ❖ All kinds of toys in good and functional condition will be accepted
- ❖ No broken toys of any nature will be accepted.. Sell them in Scrap...

5: Any other In-Kind Donations:

All preowned / preloved / Second-Hand donations including footwear need to be in clean, good, hygienic conditions
